What is the mission of The Battle of Franklin Trust?

The mission of the Battle of Franklin Trust is to preserve, understand, and interpret the story of a people forever impacted by the American Civil War. Become a part of this mission by visiting Carter House, Carnton, & Ripa Villa, exploring the battlefields in Spring Hill and Franklin, following us online, keeping an annual membership, or donating to a special project.

What is membership in the Battle of Franklin Trust?

Membership with The Battle of Franklin Trust is a partnership to help fulfill the mission by supporting the day to day operations, and becoming an ambassador for the story. To aid member ambassadors, limited access to the sites is offered. The Battle of Franklin Trust directs a portion of every membership to fund the Endowments.

What are the Battle of Franklin and Spring Hill Endowments?

The Battle of Franklin and Spring Hill Endowments are funds established to protect and preserve over a dozen historic structures, support battlefield reclamation efforts, plan for the long-term future, and secure each site's place in history.

The Endowments are designed to be at the heart of philanthropic support for the factual interpretation by The Battle of Franklin Trust. Fifteen percent of all memberships will be allocated directly to the Endowments. Ten percent to Franklin. Five percent to Spring Hill.

Unless otherwise indicated, estate and memorial gifts to the Trust will be directed toward the Endowments to provide support for preservation in perpetuity.

Is my membership and/or donation tax deductible?

The Battle of Franklin Trust is a registered 501(c)3 corporation. Your membership is tax deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law.

For more information about membership or other giving questions, contact Laurie McPeak, Chief Development Officer, at 615 786-1864 or laurie@boft.org
